(b) The State Legislations are examined from three angles viz. (a) repugnancy with Central Laws, (b) deviation from National or Central Policy and (c) legal and Constitutional validity. In this case, there are certain policy issues that need to be sorted out in consultation with the concerned Ministries/Departments as well as State Government. No time-frame can be fixed with respect to the finalisation of the consultation process.

Ill-Treatment of accused in Tihar Jail

3055. PROF. SAIF-UD-DIN SOZ: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the accused were treated as convicts and put to great hardships by the various categories of jail staff in the Tihar Jail; and

(b) whether Government envisaged change in the attitude of the staff through amendments in the Jail Manual?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) No, Sir. The undertrial prisoners and convicts are treated in all matters strictly as per provisions of Delhi Prisons Act, 2000 and Jail Manual.

(b) The Jail staff is regularly sensitized about their statutory and administrative duties related to lodging of undertrial and convicts as per provisions of Delhi Prisons Act, 2000 and Jail Manual. Grievance Redressal mechanism, provided under Delhi Prisons Act/Jail Manual takes care of any violation of prescribed rules on the part of the Jail staff.
